

Chill Out

Idiom of the month

a cura di Sarah Gudgeon

Edizioni Novembre 2019

1. Tick five things that people do to relax.

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Meditation | 4. Mindfulness |
| 2. Yoga | 5. Read |
| 3. Maths homework | 6. Listen to music |

2a. Read

I hate exams!
I'm really stressed.

Chill out, Mark. We've got lots of time to prepare a good study programme together.

Thanks, Phil. You're a mate!

2b. Complete

Students should _____ more about exam results. It's important to do your best, not be the best.

When we feel stressed we need to chill out by doing something relaxing. Stress is bad for the mind and body.

3. Read these idioms. Match each idiomatic phrase (a – f) to the correct definition (1 – 6).

a. My sister is such a stress head, she worries about everything.

b. After a hard day of study I love kicking back and watching TV.

c. My mum needs to chill out more, she is always stressed about work.

d. We need to tune in to our bodies more and respect them.

e. People should rise above life's small problems and focus on the bigger picture.

1. ...relaxing...

2. ... ignore ...

3. ... stressed person ...

4. ...relax...

5. ...listen...

4. Complete these sentences with an idiom from exercise 3.

a. To avoid getting sick you mustto your body.

b. I always panic about homework and tests. I'm such a

c. We all on a Sunday morning in my house- no work an no school. Hooray!

d. My grandma never gets stressed about the small stuff, she everything.

e. My favourite way of is going for a run in the park.

5. What do you stress about? How can you change your behaviour and chill out more? Talk to a partner.

Useful language:

I stress about....

I could chill out more by -ing.

Teacher's Notes

1.

Tick 1, 2, 4, 5, 6

2.

Complete

Students should chill out more about exam results. It's important to do your best, not be the best.

3.

Match each idiomatic phrase to the correct definition.

a3 b1 c4 d5 e2

4.

Complete the sentences with an idiom from exercise 3.

f. To avoid getting sick you must tune in to your body.

g. I always panic about homework and tests. I'm such a stress head.

h. We all chill out on a Sunday morning in my house- no work an no school. Hooray!

i. My grandma never gets stressed about the small stuff, she rises above everything.

j. My favourite way of kicking back is going for a run in the park.